They shall be allowed to use the toilet facilities also. The security personnel/other workers of the Service provider shall have no right to stay in the campus beyond their duty hours.
30. In case, the person deployed by the contractor is absent/leave, suitable replacement should be given immediately with information to the Office of the Chief Commissioner of Income tax, Coimbatore. If the Service Provider fails to deploy requisite number of security personnel as per the terms of the contract or their staff is found missing, the Office shall impose a penalty of Rs. 500/- per person per day for short deployment of staff.
31. After the award of contract, the Service Provider shall be initially on trial for two months, subject to fortnightly review of performance. The continuance of the contract for the remaining period shall be subject to the satisfactory performance during the trial period.
32. In case, the Service Provider assigns or sub-contracts his contract to some other person or attempts to do so, the Office shall have the right to terminate the agreement without giving any notice to the Service Provider.
33. The Office of the Chief Commissioner of Income Tax, Coimbatore shall have the right to unilaterally terminate the contract without specifying or assigning any reasons for the same, by giving one month's notice to the Service Provider. In such a case, Office of the Chief Commissioner of Income Tax, Coimbatore shall return the performance guarantee to the Service Provider within ten days after termination of the contract subject to the clearance of any damages due upon the Service Provider and vacation of the premises.
34. On termination of contract by the Office for any reason whatsoever, the Office shall be entitled to engage the services of any other person, agency or Service Provider to meet the requirement without prejudice to its rights including claim for damages against the Service Provider.
35. The Service Provider shall co-operate with the other Service Providers and their workers working in the campus.
36. All disputes arising out of this contract shall be subject to the jurisdiction of Courts of Coimbatore.

37. However, no dispute shall be taken by either parties to the contract, to any court of law without first referring it to an arbitrator, who will be appointed by the Office of the Chief Commissioner of Income Tax, Coimbatore and any decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding on both parties, and shall not be appealable in any court of law, except on the grounds of malafide or perversity.
38. In the event of increase in GST by State / Central Government in future applicable under this contract, the Department shall bear the same.
39. The contractor shall arrange for the maintenance of all such registers and forms as are statutorily required and / or considered necessary for the efficient performance of this contract.
40. It is clearly agreed and understood that all the persons provided / engaged by the contractor shall be the employees of the contractor and all disputes between the contractor and its personnel shall have no bearing on Office of The Chief Commissioner of Income Tax, Coimbatore. Office of the Chief Commissioner of Income Tax, Coimbatore shall not be responsible for any claims made by such persons and shall not be liable to pay any amount to any employee / ex-employee of the contractor. The Contractor is fully responsible for disciplined behavior of its workmen.
41. The Department reserves the rights to suspend this tendering process without assigning any reason, whatsoever. It also reserves the right to enter into or reject all applications depending on the availability of resources.
42. The service charges quoted shall be inclusive of cost of issue of identity cards, other expenses relating to maintenance of register, supervisory charges and other charges to be incurred by the contractor to satisfy the terms and conditions of tender.
43. The persons deployed by the contractor should maintain the confidentiality of the work carried out by them and it is also to be ensured that they should not remove or take any material that belongs to the department.
44. In case, complaints are received against the personnel deployed by the contractor and if the complaints are found to be true, the personnel should be replaced immediately.
45. If the service provided by the contractor is found to be satisfactory, the contract may be extended for a further period of one year at a time as agreed to by both the parties (contractor and the Department) under the same rates and same terms & conditions.

46. Insurance cover protecting the agency against all claims applicable under; the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1948 shall be taken by the Contractor. The Contractor shall arrange necessary insurance cover for any persons deployed by him even for short duration. This office shall not entertain any claim arising out of mishap, if any that may take place. In the event of any liability/claim falling on this office, same shall be reimbursed/indemnified by the Contractor.
47. The contractor is responsible for payment of monthly salary including leave salary, bonus, gratuity etc. to the personnel as applicable to them under law. The Contractor should ensure that salaries are paid on time every month.
48. During the contract period, the agency shall make salary and other payments and provide other things in time without waiting for the bill payments passed and paid by the Income Tax department. In case it is seen that the payments of salaries have been withheld for the reason that the same have not been paid by the department, the service provider shall be debarred from participating in the next tender to be floated by the department.
49. The agency shall discontinue the contract at any point of time by giving notice at least 60 days before the intended date of discontinuance. But it will amount to forfeiture of its security deposit submitted by it in case of discontinuation without notice and notice less than 60 days prior to the intended date of discontinuation. Income Tax Department will have the right to claim damages and recover them from the payments due to the agency or by any other means in addition to forfeiting the security deposit of the agency.
